1. Defining Governance Roles

1.1 Governance Philosophy and Approach

The Board will govern Lifeline with an emphasis on:

1. A future focus rather than a preoccupation with the present or past;
2. Strategic issues rather than administrative detail;
3. Pro-activity rather than reactivity;
4. Encouraging a diversity of opinions and views;
5. The development and expression of a collective responsibility for all aspects of the Board's performance;
6. Continuing improvement in Board and individual Board member effectiveness; and
7. The interests of Lifeline as a whole.

If something is not understood, directors are duty bound to question it until it is understood.

1.2 Role of the Board

On behalf of the stakeholders, especially the Members and clients, the Board is responsible for the stewardship and future well-being of the Lifeline Australia Group, a company limited by guarantee.

The Board's job on behalf of its Members is to ensure Lifeline achieves its Mission and strategic goals and objectives and, in doing so, meets all the legal and moral responsibilities and requirements accompanying 'best practice' corporate governance.

The Board bears ultimate responsibility for the Lifeline Australia Group achieving the purposes for which it exists. In providing leadership and strategic governance, the Board must:

1. Establish the organisation's mission, values, goals and objectives;
2. Identify and monitor the management of corporate risks;
3. Establish, monitor and review the strategic direction for the Lifeline Australia Group including review and approval of the strategic plans, annual budgets, financial objectives, significant capital allocations and expenditures and major initiatives;
4. Monitor Lifeline Australia Group's performance against policies and other criteria that have been set by the Board;
5. Ensure there are adequate resources to realise Lifeline Australia Group's mission, values, goals and objectives and that these are managed effectively through reliable financial systems;
6. Ensure the maintenance of Lifeline Australia Group's status as a not-for-profit entity and registered charity with deductible gift recipient endorsement;
7. Recruit and support the Chief Executive Officer (CEO), and constructively monitor and assess his or her performance;

8. Determine the terms of employment and remuneration of the CEO and Senior Management Team;
9. Ensure that there are processes in place to identify, manage and monitor risks;
10. Ensure the Lifeline Australia Group's compliance with applicable laws and regulations, including ensuring its ability to meet its debts as they fall due;
11. Ensure there are mechanisms for consultation with key stakeholders, and continuing accountability to them; and
12. Ensure it is itself comprised of persons who have the skills and qualities to effectively realise Lifeline Australia Group's mission, values, goals and objectives.

The Board will perform such other functions as are prescribed by law or assigned to the Board under Lifeline's governing documents.

Board members should be future oriented, demonstrating vision and foresight. They are expected to think conceptually, taking a 'helicopter' or 'big picture' perspective. They should be able to synthesise and simplify complex information and ideas. Their focus should be on strategic goals and policy implications rather than operational detail. They need to understand and focus on issues that are central to the success of Lifeline.

1.3 Role of Individual Directors

When serving as Board members, members' first duty and loyalty must be to Lifeline Australia rather than any constituency or nominating or appointing body.

Board members will be appointed to the Board in accordance with Lifeline Australia's Constitution.

1.4 Role of the Chair

The Chair

1. Presides over general meetings of Members and Board meetings and ensure the effective conduct of these meetings;
2. In conjunction with the Chair of the Governance Committee, appoints the Chair of each of the Committees and co-opted Committee members;
3. Provides the CEO with regular opportunities to discuss ideas, check directions and act as a supportive sounding board for the CEO;
4. Manages the performance of the CEO;
5. Ensures that decisions taken by the Board take into account:
 - a. Any resolutions of the Members from General Meetings
 - b. Advice from the Lifeline Australia Management (including that arising from the consultation it undertakes with Lifeline Centres)
 - c. Management of risk to Members
 - d. The duties directors of Lifeline Australia have to responsibly work for the interests of the national body and its Members.
6. Ensures appropriate governance of 'In Camera' Board meetings is adhered to;

7. Contributes to advocacy activities such as in the areas of government relations, Member engagement and fundraising, and act as a spokesperson for Lifeline Australia in the media and at significant events; and
8. Ensures consultation with key stakeholders, and accountability to them is met.

The Board of directors are responsible for annually electing the Chair, as provided for in the Lifeline Australia Constitution.

1.5 Board Composition

Within the constraints created by the Board ballot process and taking into account the needs of the organisation, the Board is committed to ensuring an appropriate balance of independent and non-independent directors on the Board. To this end, wherever possible, the Board will ensure that:

1. The Board considers director independence when making Board appointments;
2. The Chair of the Board is an independent director;
3. The Chair of the Audit & Risk Committee is an independent director, who is not Chair of the Board; and
4. The Chair of the Governance Committee and Chairs of all other Board Committees are independent directors, respectively.

A formal process is to be used for determining the independent status of a director based on consideration of whether the director or potential director:

1. Is a director, officer, employee or volunteer of, or otherwise associated directly with, a Member of Lifeline Australia;
2. Is employed, or has previously been employed in an executive capacity by Lifeline Australia or a Member, and there has not been a period of at least three (3) years between ceasing such employment and serving on the Board;
3. Has within the past three (3) years been a material professional adviser or a material consultant to Lifeline Australia, or an employee materially associated with the service provided;
4. Is a material supplier of Lifeline Australia or Member, or an officer of or otherwise associated directly or indirectly with a material supplier or customer; or
5. Has a material contractual relationship with Lifeline Australia or Member other than as a director.
6. The above process sets out key elements for consideration in relation to assessing independence, however the Board (with assistance from the Governance Committee) has final determination on independence related issues with regard to the factors outlined above.

1.6 Board Conduct

Directors and Committee Members must perform their roles and responsibilities with honesty, integrity and respect. Recognising the different nature of their duties they must:
